

Oliver Announces $112,500 for Williams College Museum of Art

September 18, 2000

Washington—Today, Congressman John W. Oliver (1st-MA) announced that the Institute of Mus

"The fact that the museum was awarded the maximum amount possible in this grant

The IMLS grants are awarded to museums that demonstrate excellence in all areas of

"The Williams Museum of Art is a jewel in the crown of a vibrant artistic community in

Oliver was an advocate for the museum's application during the funding round of the c

The funds have been awarded for ongoing institutional activities, such as conservatio

For more information about the Williams College Museum of Art, contact Linda Shear

###